1. MIZORAM COLLEGE OF NURSING (MCON) having their administrative Office at Falkawn, Mizoram – 796005, represented by Principal, and includes their successors, Executors, Administrators and Assignees.
2. The Synod Hospital, having their administrative office at Durtlang, Mizoram (herein after referred to as TSH or the second party) represented by Dr. L.H. Thanga Singson (Director, Synod Hospital)

MCON and TSH (collectively referred to as Parties) have agreed to work together for the advancement of palliative care in Mizoram, through training of undergraduate medical and nursing students, their faculty, documentation and research.

1. TERM

This MOU is effective upon the day and date last signed and executed by then duly authorized representative of the parties to this MOU and shall remain in full force and effect for 5 years from the effective date.

2. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this collaboration is to impart training on palliative care to both medical and undergraduate nursing students under MCON, with the expertise from TSH. They will also facilitate training to the faculty by experts from TSH, who could also help in documentation and research. Further TSH will provide necessary curricula on palliative care if so required by MCON

3. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MCON

- 3.1 MCON will incorporate Palliative care to the Undergraduate Nursing curriculum, either as a separate module or integrated in to the present module.
- 3.2 MCON will identify interested Nursing faculty from Nursing Colleges for training.
- 3.3 MCON will make all necessary arrangements, including a venue in its institution for workshop on Palliative care.
- 3.4 MCON will try to incorporate better documentation based on national standard for palliative care and research.
- 3.5 MCON will select a group of students interested to take forward palliative care either in academic or in practice. This group of students will also be guided by the experts in Palliative care.

4. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF TSH

- 4.1 Support MCON with the content and expertise on palliative care whenever new guidelines are issued at National and State level.
- 4.2 Facilitates training for interested Nursing faculty from MCON
- 4.3 Share expertise in Palliative care through documentation and resource material based on National standard for palliative care and research.
- 4.4 Monitor the development of the palliative care curriculum through the resources shared.

5. OTHER MUTUAL SUPPORT

Both parties will discuss and finalize the modalities for implementation of the roles required by each party.

6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Amendments: Any one of the Parties may request changes to this MOU. Any changes, modifications, revisions or amendments to this MOU which are mutually agreed upon by and between the parties shall be incorporated in writing and effective when executed and signed by both parties to this MOU.

6.2 Severability: If any portion of this MOU is illegal or unenforceable, the remainder of the MOU shall continue in full force and effect, and the Parties may renegotiate the terms affected by the severance.

6.3 Entirety of Understanding: This MOU represents the entire and integrated understanding between the Parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, represent and agreements, whether written or oral.

6.4 Relationship: No provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a partnership or joint venture or agency between the parties. Neither Party has the right to create any legal obligation on the other parties. Further, each Party shall inform its employees that they shall not be treated as employees of the other Party for any purpose whatsoever and that they shall not exercise any rights or seek or be entitled to any benefits accruing to the regular employees of the other Party. Each Party shall be solely responsible for engagement of its employees. No provision of this Agreement shall constitute a party as the legal representative or agent of the other Parties, nor shall a Party have the right or authority to assume, create or incur any liability or any obligation of any kind, express or implied, against or in the name of or on behalf of the other Parties except as provided under the MoU.

7. TERMINATION:

7.1 This MoU may be terminated, without cause, by any of the Parties upon 30 days written notice, which notice shall be delivered by hand, by email, by courier or by post to the address listed above.

7.2 The Parties may withdraw from this understanding with immediate effect by mutual consent.
